10,000 FREE ICE SKATING TICKETS FOR EDINBURGH'S SCHOOLCHILDREN

As part of a special new partnership, Standard Life and Edinburgh's Christmas are offering 10,000 free tickets to the St. Andrew Square Ice Rink to Edinburgh's schoolchildren.

Edinburgh's Christmas is one of the UK's best Christmas celebrations, and 2016 will see the biggest and best programme of events and entertainment across the city centre. Standard Life is one of the largest employers in Edinburgh and has been part of Edinburgh's community since 1825. As the new partner of the St Andrew Square Ice Rink, a popular part of Edinburgh's Christmas, Standard Life will be celebrating its long association with the city.

Tickets can be secured online from 10am on Tuesday 11 October at edinburghschristmas.com using the promotional code SLXMASICE16.

Please note:

- A maximum 6 tickets are permitted per booking.
- Tickets are allocated on a first come, first served basis and are subject to availability.
- Tickets are only available to pupils aged 18 or under in full-time primary or secondary education in City of Edinburgh.
- Children of 11 years or younger must be accompanied by a parent or responsible adult while on the ice, and the parent or responsible adult will be required to bring proof of Edinburgh residency when collecting tickets. Parent or responsible adult will be required to purchase a ticket.
- Children of 12 years or older must present a Young Scot card or other proof of ID which specifies their date of birth at the time of collecting the tickets and proof of Edinburgh residence.
- There will be no print-at-home tickets available; all ice rink tickets must be collected at the box office.
- Parents are encouraged not to pass on the promotional code to other parties as this will jeopardise children's chances of benefits from the giveaway.
- 9,000 free tickets are available to the general public; a further 1,000 have been reserved for the exclusive use of Place2Be's partner schools in Edinburgh.
